

The venues of our group have been selected according to our chart: style, quality, “know-how” and “how to be”!

They all share the same idea of our trade, the same passion: “Your satisfaction through a first class service”.

Our venues must:

1/ be “a residence of character” or “a place of exception” located in a circle of 100km around Paris, in a green park or a classified town.

2/ be experienced in hosting seminars, congress, incentives, day-study seminars as well as in the organisation of private receptions or weddings.

3/ offer a personalized commercial relationship, for the success of your event:

reactive in bringing, in short time, the right answer to your demand;

engaged in the understanding of your needs, expectations, motivations and aims to allow the best success of your event;

adaptable in the evolution of your demand from the origin until departure. Always give an easy, friendly and enthusiastic answer to your new requests or changes.

transparent in the prices, contract, product, internal or external services ; even if not part of the services offered by the venue itself, as long as they have been introduced to you by the venue.

quality concerned making sure of your entire satisfaction during and after your stay.
